2. Incorporating all or any part of an assignment, competency evaluation or examination prepared by current or former students, or using "model" answers.
3. Obtaining or ascertaining the content of an assignment, competency evaluation or examination before the content is officially available.
4. Revealing or providing the content of a competency evaluation or examination to any other person.
5. Representing or attempting to represent oneself as another student, or having or attempting to have oneself represented by another on any assignment, competency evaluation or examination.
6. Representing another's substantial editorial or compositional assistance on an assignment, competency evaluation or examination as a student's own work.

Other similar activities may also be a breach of this policy. The onus is on the student to seek clarification from the Director concerning any activity that could violate this policy.
